

limako

Kids love our Limako series! Made with creativity and quality in mind, the Limako line turns every playground into a unique and vibrant space.

What Makes Limako Special? Colorful and unique design! Our products are formed into a delightful snail shape, with vivid colors and twisted shells that catch the eye.

Limako products are available in two versions: galvanised steel and stainless steel, ensuring durability and versatility for various environments.

limako PLAYSETS

Limako offers a fantastic range of products tailored to kids of all ages. For the little ones aged 1-5 years, the Infano series is crafted with love and safety in mind. For those a bit older, between 5-8 years, the Dometo series brings the perfect blend of fun and challenge. And for the adventurous souls aged 8-13, the Domo series stands out with its engaging designs. With Limako, every child will find something they love. Of course, each set is available in two versions – galvanised steel and stainless steel.

limako

CLIMBING PLAYSETS

Limako climbing structures are more than just playsets – they are designed to combine fun with health and fitness benefits for the vibrant youth. Equipped with features like ladders, climbing poles, net structures, and a many more of other elements, they provide diverse experiences that ensure no two playtimes feel the same. Limako climbing sets stand out with their catchy, fun designs, ensuring that every playset not only offers a challenge but also sparks curiosity and joy.

Limako offers a comprehensive range of playground essentials, including swings, seesaws, spring toys, roundabouts, and so much more.

But Limako's vision goes even further. Recognizing the need for inclusive play, the series has thoughtfully designed equipment specifically for children with disabilities and wheelchair users. This ensures every child, regardless of ability, has the chance to enjoy, explore, and engage.

And for those eager minds, Limako's multifunctional sensory boards provide an educational twist. These boards stimulate curiosity, offering both play and learning in one delightful package.

With Limako, playgrounds become a universe of fun, learning, and inclusivity.

